Why does great sex so often fade for couples who claim to love each other as much as ever?

Guided by Esther Perel and her bold new take on intimacy and sex, we will probe the ambiguities of love and desire exploring ways to balance our need for security and closeness with our quest for separateness and passion.

In an atmosphere free of judgment, we will unlock our erotic intelligence as we learn to:

- Understand how our emotional history shapes our erotic blueprints
- Recognize why more intimacy can lead to less sex
- Cultivate eroticism, playfulness, and mystery between partners
- Unlock erotic blocks and put the "x" back to sex
- Keep desire alive after kids are born

Sunday January 18th, 2009 10:00 am- 6:00 pm

The workshop invites individuals and couples of all sexual orientations
